城市介紹 City Information

Gaziantep is located in the modern Türkiye at the north-western tip of Mesopotamia. It has a history dating back to the Paleolithic Period and is home to Hittite, Roman, Byzantine, Seljuq and Ottoman layers. Due to its special location on the Silk Road, the city grew rapidly after it passed into Ottoman reign in 1516 and the city became then a center where not only goods and money but also beliefs, traditions, thoughts and scientific knowledge were exchanged.

GAZİANTEP
CITY OF GASTRONOMY

Today, with 2.154.051 inhabitants (2022's data), Gaziantep is a regional center and the top ten fastest growing cities in the world with its strong cultural, agricultural and commercial structure as well as its young and educated population. The current economic structure of the city still relies on the trio of gastronomy, agriculture and commerce just like it did throughout history.
